Privacy Act

Ansvar places the highest priority on providing prompt, efficient and friendly service including the protection of your privacy.

We collect your personal information (including sensitive information) for the purposes set out in our Privacy Policy including assessing and processing claims. We generally collect personal information (including sensitive information) directly from you. In some cases, we may collect personal information from third parties e.g. medical practitioners and other health professionals.

At times we may provide your personal information to third party suppliers (agents, lawyers, other insurance companies, assessors, investigators, loss adjusters, market research and mailing houses) to perform specialised activities for us. Where the information is sensitive information (e.g. health information), we may provide this information to medical practitioners, other health professionals, other insurers and reinsurers and lawyers. We are unlikely to provide your personal information to overseas recipients.

If you do not provide the requested information, the assessment of your claim may be delayed or we may not accept the claim.

Our Privacy Policy includes further information about how we handle your personal information including how you can access and correct your information or make a privacy related complaint. For more information please visit our website: www.ansvar.com.au/privacy/ or you can contact one of our offices.
