You will not receive a refund if you have made a claim, or intend to make a claim, under the insurance policy.

Terrorism

This policy excludes cover as a result of terrorism.

In the event that property damage and/or property owners liability occur linked to an event declared a terrorism incident by the responsible Minister, then you may be afforded protection within the limits of indemnity of this policy by virtue of the Terrorism Insurance Act 2003. The operations of this Act may also serve to reduce the settlement of your loss to a percentage of the otherwise recoverable loss. In the event that the settlement is reduced then this will be at the direction of the Minister.

A more detailed explanation of the operation of the Terrorism Insurance Act 2003 can be obtained at www.arpc.gov.au.

Costs

The premium payable by you is shown in your Certificate of Insurance. The factors used to determine the premium payable under this policy include:

- the nature, age and location of the equipment insured;
- the construction, location and occupancy of the business premises;
- the maintenance arrangements in place and other loss minimization features;
- the extent of cover and any extensions required;
- the sums insured or limits of liability;
- the period of insurance (short-term/annual);
- the excess selected;
- past claims/incidents history.

The premium is payable either when the product is purchased or by direct bank debit when you elect to pay it monthly. If you elect to pay monthly there is an additional fee. A cancellation fee may apply if you cancel your insurance policy before expiry.

Premiums and fees are subject to Commonwealth and State taxes and levies which include the Goods and Services Tax and Stamp Duty, if applicable to your state. All are shown on your Certificate of Insurance

Code of Practice and Privacy Act

As a signatory to The General Insurance Code of Practice we are committed to raising standards of service to our customers. This voluntary code sets out the minimum standards we will uphold in the services we provide to you.

The Privacy Act sets out how we are to collect, use, disclose and protect your personal information. It also describes the circumstances for you to access and, if necessary correct your personal information.

Complaints

If you are not satisfied with our service we recommend that you use the complaints procedure set out below. The type of complaint could relate to the behaviour of or advice given by an Ansvr Insurance employee or authorised representative, a decision on a claim, the privacy of your personal information or any other matter relating to your insurance that is of concern to you. These procedures are available free of charge to you.

First, contact the employee or authorised representative with whom you have had contact to see if he or she can resolve the problem. If that is not possible, then contact the Regional Manager in your state. The Regional Manager will review the information and give you a response as quickly as possible; but no later than three working days from the date when the complaint is received.

If you are not satisfied with the response given by the Regional Manager, then please put your unresolved complaint in a letter and address it to:

Important notices to Policyholders

It is important to read/retain the following documents and keep them in a safe and convenient place:

- this document
- your current Certificate of Insurance

Remember to regularly review your insurance policy, particularly at renewal to ensure your insurance policy provides the cover that you currently need.

Duty of disclosure

Before you enter into an insurance contract with us, you are required to tell us every matter that is known to you, being a matter that:

- you know to be relevant to the decision by us to accept the risk and if so, on what terms; or
- a reasonable person in the circumstances could be expected to know to be a matter so relevant.

If you have not disclosed all relevant information, or if you have misinterpreted the facts, then we may be entitled to cancel the policy, reduce the sum insured, or treat the policy as never having existed.

If you do not tell us all relevant matters we can reduce the amount we pay for any claim or cancel this insurance policy. If your non disclosure is fraudulent we can void the insurance policy from the beginning.

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

This insurance policy has provision for payment of Goods and Services Tax:

- by you in relation to premiums
- by us in relation to claims

The contract between you and Ansvar Insurance

When we have received your premium, we will insure you against the events described in this insurance policy. This insurance covers the equipment against any unforeseen and sudden breakdown at the location during the period of insurance shown in the certificate of insurance. Your insurance commences and concludes at 4.00pm local time on the dates shown.

Alteration of risk

You must notify us immediately of any material change in the risk and the nature of the risk and confirm such notification by providing full details in writing. You must at your own expense take such additional precautions to minimise the risk or any hazard to the equipment insured as are reasonable in all the circumstances and must comply with any reasonable directions or requirements from us to reduce the risk. We will adjust the scope of cover and/or premium accordingly, if necessary.

Insurance cover will cease for any insured item which has sustained damage and is allowed to operate without being repaired properly.

Automatic reinstatement of sum insured

Upon the happening of any loss or damage resulting in a claim under this policy, the sum insured will be reinstated automatically to its full stated amount and coverage, unless you advise us to the contrary.

In consideration of this reinstatement, we will charge you an additional premium calculated on the amount of the cover reinstated for the period from the date of reinstatement to the next renewal date.

Cancellation

You may cancel this insurance policy at any time by notifying us in writing. This may require you to pay a cancellation fee.

We can cancel this insurance policy in accordance with the Insurance Contracts Act 1984. We will be entitled to retain premium for the period during which the insurance policy has been in force.

In addition, if we settle your claim by paying the total sum insured, we have fulfilled our obligations under the contract. We will then cancel the insurance policy with no refund of any portion of the premium as we will have paid you in full for your loss.

Examination of books and records

We may examine your books and records of all equipment under this policy at any time during the period of insurance and up to 12 months after the policy expiration or resolution of all claims under the insurance policy.

Excess

Your financial contribution if you have a claim is known as the 'excess'. The excess amount that you will have to pay when you make a claim is shown in your policy schedule.

Interpretation

Clauses and other headings are for ease of reference only and will not be deemed to form any part of the context or affect the interpretation of this policy.

Words importing the singular number shall include the plural and vice versa.

Jurisdiction

This insurance policy shall be governed and construed in accordance with the laws of Australia. Any dispute shall be resolved in accordance with these laws.

Limit of liability

The limit of our liability is the total sum insured as shown in the certificate of insurance.

Monthly instalments

You may pay your premium by monthly instalments direct from a financial institution or from your credit card. However, if any monthly instalment is dishonoured by your financial institution this policy may not operate. We may refuse to pay a claim in whole or in part if, at the date of loss, any monthly instalment has remained unpaid for at least 14 days, unless we have agreed otherwise in writing.

If you have a total loss or we settle your claim by paying the full sum insured under any section of this policy, we will deduct outstanding instalments for that section from the amount we pay you.

Should the financial institution holding your account return or dishonour a direct debit payment due to lack of funds in your account, we will charge you for any direct or indirect costs which we incur arising from the payment being returned or dishonoured.

Other insurance

You must inform us of any other insurance which may also cover the equipment under this insurance policy.

Other interests

You must not transfer your interest or any entitlement under this policy without our written consent.

Our right of inspection

We have the right to inspect and examine any of the equipment covered by this policy at any reasonable time. You are required to provide us all details and information we may reasonably request.

Reasonable care and maintenance

You are required to:

1. take reasonable precautions to prevent loss or damage and maintain and safeguard the equipment insured under this policy;
2. comply with manufacturers operating instructions and recommended maintenance schedule and maintain the equipment in good working order;
3. comply with all statutory obligations, regulations and safety requirements imposed by any authority;
4. do all things reasonably practicable to minimise any interruption of or interference with your business to avoid or diminish any consequential loss, where such loss is covered by this policy.

Service of legal process

You may effect service of any legal process on us in connection with this policy by delivering that process by hand or by post to the address for service stated in the certificate of insurance and such service shall be deemed to be personal service upon us.

You may give any notice under this policy to us at any of our offices in Australia.

Subrogation

If we make any payment under this insurance policy, then to the extent of that payment, we may exercise any rights of recovery held by you or any other person. You must not do anything which reduces any such rights and must provide reasonable assistance to us in pursuing any such rights.
