Important notices

Your duty of disclosure

Before you enter into a contract of general insurance with Ansvar Insurance Limited ('Ansvar' or 'us' or 'we'), you have a duty under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 to disclose to us every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to our decision to accept the risk of insurance and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose these matters to us before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of general insurance.

Your duty, however, does not require disclosure of any matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by us; or
- that is of common knowledge; or
- that we know or, in the ordinary course of our business, ought to know; or
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by us.

Your duty of disclosure continues after this proposal form has been completed up until the contract of insurance is entered into.

Non Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, we may be entitled to reduce our liability under the policy in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, we may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Change to circumstances

You should advise Ansvar as soon as practicable of any material change to the organisation insured and any of its subsidiaries and controlled entities as disclosed in this proposal form.

Waiver of rights

If you have agreed not to seek compensation from another person who is liable to compensate you for any loss, damage or liability which would have been covered by this policy, we will not cover you under this policy for that loss, damage or liability other than to the extent provided under any Section of this policy or agreed by us in writing.

Privacy Statement

Ansvar places the highest priority on providing prompt, efficient and friendly service including the protection of your privacy.

We collect your personal information to provide you with general insurance products. The information we collect is used to assist us to provide you with our general insurance products, to manage our relationship with you and to assess and process claims. We will not be able to supply you our policy if you do not provide us with your personal information. The information is generally collected from you when you are applying for or enquiring about our insurance products or when making a claim.

At times we rely on third party suppliers (agents, lawyers, other insurance companies, assessors, investigators, loss adjusters, market research and mailing houses) to perform specialised activities for us. Your personal information may be provided to them so that they can carry out their agreed activities. They are bound by confidentiality and non-disclosure agreements and are prohibited from using the information for any other purpose. These service providers are aware of their obligations under the Privacy Act. We are unlikely to provide your personal information to overseas recipients.

Our Privacy Policy includes further information about how we handle your personal information including how you can access and correct your information or make a privacy related complaint. For more information please visit our website: www.ansvar.com.au/privacy/ or you can contact one of our offices.

Code of Practice

As a signatory to the General Insurance Code of Practice (the "Code"), we are committed to raising standards of service to our customers. This voluntary code sets out the minimum standards we will uphold in the services we provide to you. You can obtain more information on the Code and how it assists you by contacting us.
